

PROFESSOR LUCY WAN "OUTSTANDING PHARMACIST" AWARD (2007)

PSS invites nominations from the Society membership for the 2007 Award.

Closing date for the nomination is 31st July 2007.

OBJECTIVES

- To give due recognition to pharmacists who have excelled in their respective areas of pharmacy practice.
- To identify leaders/role models in the pharmacy profession.
- To encourage continued significant contributions to the profession.
- To encourage and promote excellence in the pharmacy profession.
- To provide vision and mentorship to fellow pharmacists.

NOMINATION

- A nomination must be made on the prescribed Form together with Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
- The candidate must be nominated by one and seconded by one other member of the PSS.
- Each PSS member may either nominate or second one candidate only.
- The candidate must be a member of the PSS and must have at least five years of working experience.

SELECTION

- The Award Selection Committee (ASC) will select a winner from the nominees and its decisions are final.
- The ASC reserves the right to reject any nomination without providing any reason.
- The ASC will select the winner on the basis of his/her leadership quality and contributions made to the Pharmacy profession and the PSS.
- In the event that no winner is selected by the ASC, this prestigious award will not be presented for that particular year.

THE WINNER

- The winner must deliver a PSS keynote address of about 20 minutes.
- The winner must be agreeable to be an "Ambassador" for the PSS.

AWARD SELECTION COMMITTEE

- Prof. Lucy Wan
- Representation of PSS Council
- PSS Advisor

PROFESSOR LUCY WAN
"OUTSTANDING PHARMACIST" AWARD (2007)

NOMINATION FORM

Name of nominated candidate: _____

Brief outline of contributions made to the Pharmacy profession and to PSS.
(Attach extra pages if necessary)

The above candidate is nominated for the award by:

1. _____
(Name) (Signature)

The above candidate is seconded by the following PSS member:

2. _____
(Name) (Signature)